Get Involved...Great Events Coming Your Way!

Dear TMA Nevada Members and Friends,

Progress from the Summer:

I hope you all had a great summer. Many of us enjoyed our round table themes both in July and August—from sharing past turnaround stories and lessons learned to discussing how to reconnect consumers to their suppliers in these troubled times. From that discussion is a current undertaking to change the message on the homepage of our website: www.tmaofnevada.com to one that “reaches out” with a help mechanism to businesses in need of our members’ expertise. We hope to have this message on the site before October’s end. In addition, various public relations efforts are in the works to convey this message to Nevada’s business community.

Our Fall Line Up is a Winner for You:

Your board of directors has continued to deliver great programs that make us all better professionals and help you showcase your business. The September Cash Flow Overview was so well received, that efforts are in the works for 2009 to bring you the full-blown seminar series. On October 22 The Turnaround Game Challenge will take place. Come join us as we are divided into teams to help Abbott & Costello Aviation in its corporate restructuring efforts. An eblast carrying the case and inviting you to sign-up and join a team will be rolled out by October 6. Make sure you read up before the meeting and formulate ideas with fellow team members ahead of time! We have planned great “study hall” munchies for you at Panevino Ristorante.

Extra!! Extra!! We Got All the Judges...that is every Bankruptcy Court Judge who presides for the District of Nevada: The Honorable Linda B. Riegle, Gregg W. Zive, Bruce A. Markell, and Mike Nakagawa. PLUS they will be moderated by Assistant U.S. Trustee, Augie Landis. The event will be held the day after our national election, November 5 at Panevino Ristorante.

Our Holiday Cheer will be celebrated on December 3 at the beautiful offices of Greenberg Traurig. The menu promises to be delicious and elegant...you can’t beat the price; it is complimentary to you, thanks to our Holiday sponsors. So come join us, despite these troubled times, there is plenty for us all to be thankful.

The New Year Brings New Programs...

January 2009 promises to be a month that sets the bar for the rest of the year...On January 7, we will have our Member Kick-Off premiering the year's programs, we will also be hosting our new year in a different venue. Stay tuned we are working on it.
